Production Area :

Central Valley

Here, the terroir pay homage to Old World traditions while embracing New World innovation. Unlike Cahors, Central Valley's abundant sunlight and Pacific influences impart a new dimension, infusing our Malbec with a vibrant intensity that dances on the palate. The valley's distinctive character, shaped by diverse microclimates, creates wines that embody the harmony of bold dark fruit and subtle earthy undertones. Our Malbec offers a journey beyond borders, an exploration of terroir that encapsulates both heritage and pioneering spirit, celebrating the fusion of two continents.
